

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT191013 – Oct 13, 2019

Bring Me Gold

Have I not asked you, being a body from the very beginning, to bring forth that in the earth which I have laid My hand on you to bring forth? says the Spirit of Grace. And I caution you again and encourage you again and solicit from you again, as My dear children, to bring Me gold tried by fire, says the Spirit of Grace. And I do not speak specifically of the trying of fire by testings and trials of which your faith will often be, but I am asking you to come and complete the purging process, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not trade your gold for brass. Do not trade your gold for brass, for have I not asked you? Have I not selected you? Have not I cautioned you that I have not selected you above others—that you would go in a way of pride or arrogance? Yet I have given you a calling that no one can achieve in the earth except through prayer and except through fasting, says the Spirit of Grace, except through going into My Word and the things of depth and promise.

Have I not given you a mandate from the very beginning? says the Spirit of Grace, and I have gathered your hearts and souls here as one to bring forth that mandate of prayer, says the Spirit of the Lord. Go into Me like you never have—determined in this year to come that you will make this a place of prayer inside of you like you have never known.

Many will grab you by the shoulder and by the arm and say, “Come do this with me.” The natural tendency will be to show your love to them and to show your allegiance to Me, says the Lord, that you would involve yourself in this and that and the other, but I say unto you as a church, and I say unto you as elders, and I say unto you believers, that what I have laid My hand on you for, as kings and priests, is to go into the prayer closet.

Many will reason, and your natural mind will reason, and Satan will come and say, “I’ve called you to the streets, and I’ve called you to feed the poor, and I’ve called you to do all these things.” And yes, in Me I will bring those things to pass, but it will not be through an operation of the flesh like most of the Church knows. But I will bring forth in you an exact replica of My Firstborn, the One who walked in front of you. Yes, He fed the poor, and yes, He brought forth ministry everywhere He went. It was because He knew Me in a private place. It was because He continued to purge Himself continually and walk in a place of commitment to Me, says the Spirit of Grace.

I am asking you to narrow your vision like never before. I am asking you to zero-in like never before. I am calling you, says the Spirit of Grace, to become laser focused like never before. Busyness is not a sign. An over-busyness is not a sign unto you or a confirmation to you that great works are being done. And yet there will be times where you will be very busy doing My work, says the Lord.

Listen and hearken. I have few—I have very few who are willing to do this. I have very few who are willing to hide themselves in the secret place and go into My Word and go into My Spirit and to deny their flesh. The flesh will give you many opportunities to minister in My Name, and yet I will work a work there as much as I can, but I have a very select few who will hide themselves and bring forth the anointing that causes a citywide and a statewide revival, says the Spirit of the Lord.

So, I am asking you, kings and priest, I am asking you to come away with Me to a place that I have solicited from you for many, many years. And I am pleased with you, says the Spirit of Grace. I am not disheartened with you, but I am pleased with your effort so far, but I am asking you not to quench the Spirit—in not listening to these very words and reasoning them out in your own mind saying, “That is a man speaking; that’s a man speaking, but I hear from God.” Listen to these things; judge these things, says the Spirit of the Lord. Judge them by the Word.

Understand this, that I have called you aside. I have called you to be a peculiar people unto Me, says the Lord. I have called you to walk in the spirit and deny the flesh, and yet when you pray, you’ll move mountains, says the Lord. The earth has not seen people like you in many generations. I am asking you to come away with Me, My beloved. I am asking you to come away with Me, My beloved. Know Me in intimacy and know Me in My Word like you have never known before. Let your world that you live in become a place of peace and quietness.

I promise you by My Word and by My Spirit that none of you, including the one speaking now, have come into the place of peace and quiet like I have for you. There is a stillness that will direct your day. There is a stillness that will direct your life. There is a stillness that cannot hear the offense. Deafened ears cannot hear, and yet you will move out of a place of authority in My Spirit, continually moving mountains and moving things in your life. And yet ears are still dull of hearing, for many of you presently and many who will hear will think of other things and only hear this partially, but when you come to another place, you can hear it in more depth. And more depth will bring you to greater depth, says the Spirit of the Lord.

I say unto you that your entire life is to be consumed in Me, says the Lord. Give unto Me what brass and what silver cannot—I desire the fruit of the earth. I desire a great harvest, says the Spirit of the Lord. I desire that all of you walk in all the gifts of the Spirit, all the gifts of the Spirit flowing through you. I desire that Joel’s army, the army of the last day, will flow together. No weak and no sickly among you is My desire, for I have chosen you as a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people unto Me.

PT191027A – Oct 27, 2019
You Who Have Ears to Hear

He who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit has to say, says the Lord. For many will be dull in their hearing, not having ears to hear because of the layers of flesh that still surround and abate and hold back the strength of the Spirit. But I say into you, that those who have ears to hear, I have given you a spirit inside of you, and I am not speaking particularly of the Holy Spirit at this time. But I have given you a spirit, to conquer—to conquer your world and to conquer your flesh from the very beginning, to stand without argument head and shoulders above the domination of the flesh, to cast these things out and not live according to the flesh but according to the spirit, says the Spirit of Grace. This was the first measure, but this is not where I left you.

I did not leave you to live the rest of your existence with your joy only in your ability to conquer sin. I have a much greater calling beyond that for you. For once you understand that you could conquer that person and live above in righteousness, I have asked you to come apart and conquer the world around you. And for this you will need that Spirit that comes by power to you through strengths and through fire and through purging, says the Spirit of Grace.

My Spirit comes to burn up the last of anything left beyond the entrance into My Kingdom. My Spirit comes; My Holy Ghost comes to offer to each one of you the free-will choice of the whipping post, where I as a Father, through My Spirit, will scourge away the remaining of anything left that has any effect upon you following Me in the fullness of what I have ask you to do. Do not be mistaken. Do not let arguments arise in your heart and mind to delude the message of what I speak to you. I gave you the power at the very entrance of salvation to conquer those things that destroy the Image, which you call “killer” or “deal-breaker” sins. That was done from the very moment of conception. But I am asking those of you who will hear My voice and purge yourself through prayer and fasting and giving of thanks to come away with Me into another level.

Why would you rejoice all your life, as to make it the only and the center part of your life, that you are able to conquer your flesh? That to Me was the beginning. I am asking you to go forth and to conquer a world around you and to conquer your city through fastings and prayers, and to bring forth and to destroy the last part of anything in you that is complacent towards these things, that is indifferent towards these things. For whosoever has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit says, says the Spirit of Grace.

Many, many will think often, “But You lean heavily upon us, Lord; You lean heavily upon us from the pulpit, and You lean heavily upon us from instruction.” But has not My Word said that as many as I love that I would chasten, and as many as will prune themselves and go through the fire that I will likewise prune them again and again and again?

Do not be ignorant of this understanding that there are not many in the earth at this present time who have turned aside to offer their bodies a living sacrifice. When I say not many, I am not talking about that there are just a few, a number I am talking about as in the proportionate of the Church and especially the Church in modern America. There are not many in proportion to that Church who have turned aside to seek My face and cry out and abandon their flesh and abandon their world and abandon their aspirations and abandon the self-exalted and self-expressed life. I cannot make you do this. I will not make you do this. And this does not negate your coming to Me at the end of your life in salvation and receiving whatever reward is available. But whoever will, whoever will lay down their life will reach a great harvest in this life. I will lay My hand upon you, and your exaltation will be to do the works that My First Begotten did. It will become natural and become a flow to you and through you, says the Spirit of Grace.

You will not have time for arguments. Doctrine will be of the utmost importance, but debates and speculations and theories and all kinds of endless chatter will not be of any necessity. You will not have any time; you will walk past it to heal another and to raise another.

Become deafened to the rhetoric of the Church. Become deafened to the rhetoric of even some of your family members. For many who know Me as in sonship, do not know Me in intimacy. My words are afar off to them, though I have a place in their heart as in salvation, yet I cannot turn them to the right hand or to the left. I cannot turn them as I will, says the Spirit of Grace.

But those of you who have ears to hear, continue in a straightforward motion. Listen always, obey always, be quick to repent, for I do not have many in proportion, but the ones that I have will bring about this outpouring, says the Spirit of Grace.

PT191027B – Oct 27, 2019

Endure in the Fight

Many of your hearts are turned aside, fighting the battle—some on many fronts, financially, physically, emotionally. For the drain and the fight of the battle has been part of your distraction. But I say to you: Lift yourself up. Shake yourself and let Me stir you. Let Me stir you beyond the place that you walk at today. Let this be a place where I infuse My strength into your hearts, that it goes beyond a determination of the mind, but a strength infused by My Spirit to cause you to begin to continue day and night to pray the mysteries, to walk in My Spirit, and to pray in My Spirit.

Leave the parking lot today praying in the Spirit. Fellowship at times all through the day with Me, and others, intermittent praying. Find yourself praying in the Spirit because in it is My desire is to lift you up. I desire to take you past the burdens and the fight. I have asked you to endure in the fight. I have asked you to endure in the fight, but I have not asked you to endure the things that have come that bring the fight. I have not asked you to endure sickness, depression, poverty, as to let them rule over you or lord over you, but I have asked you to endure a fight against them, a good fight. But let Me take the weight of this fight, says the Spirit of Grace.

While you are worshiping Me and giving yourself over to tongues and to My Word, know this, that I am building you up on your most holy faith. I am preparing inside of you a continual answer against those things that have come to lead you astray, with such a force against your emotions that it is hard to stand. Let Me shore you up.

Let Me be a Father to you. Let Me once again get over to you how much I love you as My sons and as My daughters.

In My strength and My affirmation of My love to you, there is a great strength, says the Spirit of Grace. Give yourself over to this place. The more that you do it, the more you will come up, the more you will stand. When you forget for a day or a season, go right back in. I will continue to be there to remind you. You are not lost—you are Mine. I know where you are at.

PT191030 – Oct 30, 2019
Intimacy Is the Hour You Live In

Many of you are hearing the cry of Heaven, says the Spirit of Grace, for I am saying unto you in your spirit—that compass that is beyond all reason. It is beyond the mind; it is deeper than intellectual thought. The cry of Heaven is for you to come away. Come away with Me, says the Spirit of Grace. To you who are hearing this cry, to you it feels like there is a desire inside of you. You would be just satisfied to go and sit somewhere and exhaust yourself in prayer, praying the mysteries until nothing was left, hour after hour, moment after moment. This is the cry that I am giving to the Church who has ears to hear.

Come away with Me, My beloved. Come away with Me. For I must woo you into a place of intimacy to have you as the forerunners to this great outpouring. Will you do it? Will you come away? Will you find that private place and that corporate place to seek Me and to sit and come away? Will you push back the hours and find room for Me and sacrifice time? Will you find the way, through My wisdom, to steal moments and time, to pray and intercede? For I am laying on My Church, male and female, young and old, a desire to pray, a desire to intercede. Even those who do not consider themselves as intercessors, I am laying upon you the burden of intercession. For did I not say that My yoke is easy and My burden is light? There is a refreshing in this burden. All who take it on, all who receive it and embrace it find life, says the Spirit of the Lord. There is a death to the flesh but a life to the spirit. The tradeoff is beyond measure, says the Spirit of Grace. The tradeoff is beyond measure.

Seek Me—find opportunity, find excuses to steal away and sit with Me and pray. So much depends on you. You have not even yet realized how much depends on you. You have not yet realized how jealous I am over you. I am very jealous, very jealous in a godly manner over you, says the Spirit of the Lord. For I have birthed you for this reason and therefore, like a mother who would protect her children, like a father who would watch over and keep back that which would come in to molest and to destroy, My Spirit watches over this place and all other places where this cry is going out and where ears, spiritual ears are being able to hear these things, says the Lord.

I am very gentle with those. I put on your right hand and on your left bumper rails to cause you to be able to know “Yes” to this and “No” to that, because all things, though they are lawful, they are not expedient. Though many things might be permissible, they are not expedient to you who are hearing this cry from Heaven. Come away, come away, come away with Me, My sons and daughters. Long after, lust, lust after with a godly lust, with a desire that exceeds all desires in this earth, to know Me in intimacy.

There is a reward for you, not just in Heavenly places in times to come, for there is a reward—present tense, says the Spirit of Grace. When I wrap My arms around you and use you in intercession to change many things in the days ahead, when you watch these things, I will witness to you on the inside: Your prayers did these things; your prayers opened up an avenue for this one to be healed and that one to be delivered and many things to be set in the progress of this outpouring. You will rejoice. You will be exceedingly glad when others cannot understand your joy. You will be like a mother that gave birth—both male and female, you will understand the joy of giving birth.

I have called you. I saw you, before you were born, having a timelessness in Myself, and I desired many, many to go this route. But by your own election, you have chosen, so I come to you with a jealousy. I come to you with a desire, and I am placing that desire stronger and stronger inside of you.

Incredible gladness is in front of you in the days ahead, says the Spirit of Grace. You will be glad for every moment that you fought back the temptation to quit. You will be glad for every moment that you have walked past an offense that could have averted you from the right hand to the left. You will watch the children come in, the little ones who will be healed. You will watch people from all walks of life come in and be healed. Yes, the children coming out of the groves, coming out of the pastures, coming out of places of obscurity—you will watch them be healed. And you would trade another ten lives for more of the opportunity to give yourself over to this divine intercession, says the Spirit of Grace.

Intimacy is the hour that you live in. I call you; I call you apart. I desire you as a jealous husband with a godly desire for that which he has received, that which has been given to him. My Father has given Me My espoused Bride, and I am very jealous over you. I hold you with the greatest regards. I nurture you wherever I can, and I fill you wherever I can when you give Me this. Come away with Me. Come away with Me, My Bride.