

Spiritual Authority Confessions

I speak the end result. I believe that the Holy Spirit, the angels, and everything that heaven employs goes before me and surrounds my words with authority and power so that the things I place my hand to are accomplished in a perfect standing of grace and authority.

What I speak comes to pass. I have supernatural help to accomplish what the world cannot accomplish. The anointing surrounds me as I walk through life. It breaks all yokes. His presence is always with me. My life is a life of freedom and peace. What I say comes to pass because I always move out of spiritual authority.

When I walk into a room, it lights up. I always have an answer for everything because the One who created all things dwells inside of me. I am a problem solver everywhere I go. I solve every problem with the anointing that breaks the yoke. I step back from the natural into my sonship as a child of God and I give answers that are empowered with grace. I stand in chaotic situations and release the anointing that breaks the yoke. I am called to bring answers that release the anointing.

I speak words of life everywhere I go. I speak life and prosperity to bodies, prosperity to souls, prosperity to finances, prosperity to the children coming in; people being born again, and lives being changed.

I refuse foolish jesting that speaks contrary to the Word of God. I am diligent to walk in truth and in the power of God's words. I line my life up with God and His Word. Great joy is coming to me. Greater joy than I have ever known.
