

The Unbounded Soul

If suddenly you could take flight today with the eagles and soar high above the earth, high up into the heavenlies, think about how all of the perceptions of your soul would immediately change. Things that were impossible yesterday, the soul would never perceive as being impossible again, for now you would have experienced what was impossible to you before. There would even be some fear as you looked down and saw the earth far beneath you. At the same time there would be exhilaration because of these new found abilities, no longer impossibilities, but do-abilities that were never even conceived as being possible prior to this event.

So it is with the unbounded soul, the mind of Christ. The soul where all the limits have been taken off. The soul that is free to soar with My Spirit. The soul in which all things are possible! It is for this reason that the training by the Teacher must flow through the spirit to the soul. For the soul, of its own accord, has no ability to comprehend these things on its own. But the spirit mind can comprehend these things and be taught these things directly by the Spirit of Truth sent from heaven.

The limits are coming off of your soul. Again, think of the change that would occur if you suddenly could take flight with the eagles. The eagle's mind thinks it not impossible to soar high into the heavenlies. Yet the eagle's mind is limited concerning many things that are possible for man to do. So it is in the natural soul. There are limitations constrained by physics, the laws of this natural world, through observance of circumstance. But the spiritual mind has no such limitations. The spiritual mind can be taught directly by the Comforter. That information can be digested, processed, and delivered to your soul in such a way that it removes the limits that presently constrain it.

Understand that every time a leap of this magnitude is made, what you would call a quantum leap, what others call a paradigm shift or an epiphany, once experienced ... the soul can never return to its former lowly state. For the limit has been removed and the boundary destroyed ... forever! The soul now comprehends with full knowledge that new things are possible that it did not believe were possible before. Think again of what it would be like to literally be soaring high in the heavens with the eagle. Think of the immediate transformation of the soul and the mind. Think of the exhilaration in the emotions. Think of the instant transformation.

Many of these experiences are coming upon you during this season. The soul is the servant of the spirit. The soul has fought you hard to remain in its position of lordship over your spirit. But endurance and perseverance are crumbling the resolve of the soul and even now it is bowing the knee to the lordship of the spirit I have placed within you, which truly is made in the likeness of Christ. Continue, son. The limitations are coming off of your soul. Your soul shall be the soul of meekness, the soul of humility, and a soul that knows no boundaries.
