

Wallowing In The Mire Prophecy – Dave Roberson

2-15-95

"Your adversary knows the power of the new creation reality and the voice of the conscience that rages within the heart of a born-again man. He knows that he cannot overpower it in a moment's time. So, a little bit at a time, a little bit at a time, line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little, there a little, does he plan your demise. Hour after hour, day after day, week after week, does he systematically combat your morality. For your soul he desires to keep. And the things that you at one time were disgusted with, you now tolerate. And in not many days hence, his plan is for you to defend. And then in stages that lead to immorality, it goes from defense to the partaking of the evil deed. So, understand, your demise is being authored line upon line, precept upon precept.

Priceless in the eyes of Almighty God is one who keeps their conscience pure and clean, for in and through them can I manifest My power unto a backward and perverse generation like the world has never seen. For many, even among our ranks, have transgressed the law of our God, and given the devil place. And presently he authors their demise while they offer their life on the altar of sacrifice. Not sacrificing to put the deeds of the flesh to death, but to give them life. For they have long since stopped efficiently sowing to the Spirit to stop the rate that the unclean spirit is overtaking them in that private place.

Therefore, rise up in holiness. Rise up in the power of My Spirit. Rise up to the place that I desire for you to be and purge out that leaven and My glory you will surely see. I cannot add Myself unto those who have been defiled. I can only add Myself to those who remain clean, pure, and upright before Me. Little is understood about Agape, the love that reigns supreme. For perversion has entered the body of Christ and they no longer understand the difference between a selfish love of humanity, which is self-seeking and many times hidden behind a devil's plan. Agape looks beyond the veil of the flesh and makes decisions based upon eternity and the lives of the ones that you are dealing with. For if a person cleaves unto a lifestyle of sin, it would have been better that they had never known the way of righteousness, than to have turned their back on it. For they are as a dog returning to his own vomit or a pig in her wallowing in the mire after she has been made clean.
