

BJ17 The Real Jesus

1987- Be not deceived. Truly I am calling for unity in My body, but it shall not be by compromise of My Word that this unity comes together. You will see two things happening in the body of Christ:

- a. Organized churches will try coming together, trying to find areas where they can agree. And where they disagree, they will compromise. And where they compromise, they will lose. That is not the call of My Spirit. That is the call of reasonings; to try and force unity.*
- b. I have a remnant in every church who sees Jesus as He is in the Word. This remnant from all denominations shall come together in unity. They will not be so concerned with form, nor doctrines, yet they will not only have a form of godliness, but they will have the power thereof. For the gospel is not in word only, but it is in power. This remnant that rises up shall be so persecuted by the majority that are trying to compromise their way into unity. They will call you everything but a child of God.*

Be not deceived. Anything that does not look like Jesus in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John - is not Jesus! Keep a clear vision of Who Jesus is, what Jesus does, and the fruit when He shows up.

Forget not My words that the storm came and beat upon the man's house. And the man that heard My words and did them, though the storm raged, and looked as terrible as the storm that raged against the man's house that fell, his house did not fall. Remember My words. Stand on My words. See My words only. The storm will rage. It will look devastating. But you shall not fall, and your house shall not fall. STAND ON MY WORD AND DO NOT COMPROMISE.

We can evangelize with any denomination that preaches Christ and Him crucified. But working together in discipleship is another matter. If you are going to teach the new believers that tongues have passed away, healing has passed away, or that living holy does not matter, we cannot walk together.

Amos 3:3 KJV Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

If you are going to teach them radical grace, that they can sin without penalty, we cannot walk together.

John 8:11-12 KJV She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more. [12] Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

Jesus does not change. His ministry in us has not changed. He is doing the same work today as in the four gospels. He is simply doing it through us now. When John the Baptist asked if Jesus was the Christ, Jesus said,

Matthew 11:3-5 KJV And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? [4] Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: [5] The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

That is Jesus! Jesus plainly said these same works are to be done through us now. It is HIM doing the works ... through us!

John 14:12-14 KJV Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. [13] And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. [14] If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

"He" that believeth on me. It is not confined to apostles. It is for every single person who believes.

Mark 16:15-18 KJV And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. [16] He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. [17] And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; [18] They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

These signs shall follow "them that believe." It is for Joe Public and Mary Wallpaper. He said to me, "I want to be believed." Back to John chapter 12, John 14:15 KJV If ye love me, keep my commandments.

In plain English, "Do what I say." How serious is He about this? This passage in the Sermon on the mount is seldom taught as a single message. This warning is to what we today would call "church people."

Matthew 7:21-27 KJV Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. [22] Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? [23] And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. [24] Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: [25] And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. [26] And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: [27] And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

Pastor Dave would teach this same message out of Luke's gospel and say, "If only we could find some of His sayings ... we could do them ... and our house would not fall. Wait, maybe we could find some of His sayings by looking earlier in this same chapter. Oh boy, we will find His sayings, do them, and get a new car and a bigger house ..."

Luke 6:27-35 KJV But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, [28] Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. [29] And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also. [30] Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. [31] And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. [32] For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. [33] And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same. [34] And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. [35] But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

This is a transformation to love that is seldom found in the modern church. This transformation cannot be achieved by human effort. This is a true metamorphosis, like the caterpillar to the butterfly. Paul told us how it is accomplished,

Romans 12:1-2 KJV I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. [2] And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

The only part we do in that process is ... "present our bodies a living sacrifice" to the Holy Spirit for the transformation process. We can yield out bodies in prayer, in the Word of God, in worship, and in fasting. By yielding to the Holy Spirit in this way, the "be ye transformed" is accomplished. We cannot transform ourselves. Only the Holy Spirit can achieve that.

God has given us dominion over our time. No matter how busy you are, there are times in your day where it is your choice whether you are going to yield your body, your time, your mind ... to the Holy Spirit for the transformation process.

God will not override your free will. YOU present YOUR body a living sacrifice.
