

When You Dance in the Darkness

When you dance in the darkness,
when you lift your hands in praise,
when your mouth pours forth My goodness,
Even when the sun is under a shade.

When you dance in the darkness,
Dancing beyond your fears.
Dancing in the darkness,
Dancing through your tears

Heaven is watching
Watching in delight
Dancing in the darkness
Until your faith becomes sight

By dancing in the darkness,
You release the highest praise
Your Father hushes heaven
To hear this sweetest praise

By dancing in the darkness,
An aroma is released
Its incense before the throne
Will never ever cease

When you dance in the darkness,
Although you feel you dance alone,
angels dance beside you,
Knowing I'll soon call you home.

They cluster all around you,
When you offer Me this praise.
When you dance in the darkness,
You have heaven's gaze.
