

The Simplicity of The Anointing

Be encouraged to know that there is nothing about the anointing that I do not understand, says the Lord. The natural man has no knowledge, no understanding and hardly even any conception of the anointing of God. But I totally and fully understand the anointing. To Me it is a simple thing, completely understood. As you continue to yield yourself to My Spirit, says the Lord, I will reveal the simplicity of the anointing to you. For it is something that you will walk in. It is a part of My call for your life. Be encouraged to know, you will understand the anointing! You will walk in the anointing, and it will be simple. For the Teacher I have sent, the Holy Spirit, will reveal to you line by line and precept upon precept all facets of the anointing. It shall become as a tool in your hand as it was a tool in the hand of My Son's. You will walk in the anointing. The anointing will flow through you. You will deliver the fruit by the anointing. Be of good cheer! You are in the right school, says the Lord.

And I have prepared this classroom of the Holy Spirit with assignments and lessons specifically tailored for you, that you may learn of Me. That you may learn from My hand and understand in ways that you will perceive, and comprehend, and be able to grasp. No man shall ever be able to take this understanding from you, says the Lord. The more time that you can yield to My Spirit, the faster your education and the transformation of your walk will be completed. Yield to My Spirit, son. Give time to My Spirit. My Spirit is an excellent Teacher. The lessons are already in Him. Your lessons are already prepared. It is simply a matter of receiving those lessons from the Teacher.

When the simplicity of My anointing dawns on you, says the Lord, you will look back on these days with amusement that it ever seemed so hard. For it is not hard as you perceive "hard" to be. From your point of view the problem is; it is simply not carnal. It cannot be carnally understood. It is only revealed by My Spirit, says the Lord. But as you spend time with Him, He will reveal these things unto you. And it will be so simple, even to your mind! It will be so simple, says the Lord. You will look back on these days with amusement that you ever thought it was hard.

For your mind's sake I will say this to you at this point; The anointing is My delivery system that allows Me to stretch forth My hand from the realm of the spirit to touch those that are in the realm of the material. The anointing is My delivery system from the spirit realm to the natural realm. You shall understand the anointing. Be of good cheer! Be of good cheer and be at peace, trusting in My Spirit. Be at total peace, trusting in My Spirit as you yield your time to Him, says the Lord.
