

Without Me You Can Do Nothing

Without Me, you can do nothing! Without Me, you can do nothing! I have instructed you, son, to seek Me and to praise Me for without Me, you can do nothing. Abandon all hope of ever helping people yourself for it is futile. It is useless and it is worthless. Abandon all hope of that, says the Lord. I have not called you to minister to people yourself. I have called you to be My vessel for Me to minister to the people Myself! Abandon all hope of doing anything yourself to deliver people. It cannot be done. It will never be done. I remind you of My Word to you years ago, 'Human compassion is as deadly as poison.' My compassion heals. My compassion delivers. With My compassion comes the anointing. With My compassion comes the power to change and the power to transform.

Die to even the notion that you yourself can help people. Die to it! Completely! Spend time in My presence. Seek Me and praise Me. As I build Myself into you then you become the vessel that I can use to deliver people. Without Me, you can do nothing!

It is only by knowing Me on the heart level that your trust becomes effectual to produce fruit that will minister to those to whom I am stretching forth My hand to touch. Again I say unto you that to rescue My sheep requires My anointing. You must see with My eyes, hear with My ears, think with My mind, touch with My anointing and feel with My compassion. Love with My love. These things will never be obtained except from Me, Myself! You will never have them without spending time with Me, says the Lord. You will have them of a surety if you do! For this is the purpose of My sending the Comforter, to transform you into My image as you behold My glory. But one step on the path is where you have arrived now...Die now to the notion, die forever to the idea that you can help people. Without Me, you can do nothing!
